

THE CANONS - SITE CONTEXT

MITCHAM CRICKET GREEN CONSERVATION AREA

What is a Conservation Area?

A Conservation Area is an area of notable environmental or historical interest or importance which is protected by law against undesirable changes.

How is a conservation area designated?

Most Conservation Areas are designated by the Council as the local planning authority. Historic England can designate conservation areas in London and The Secretary of State can also designate in exceptional circumstances - usually where the area is of more than local interest.

Which Conservation Area does The Canons lie?

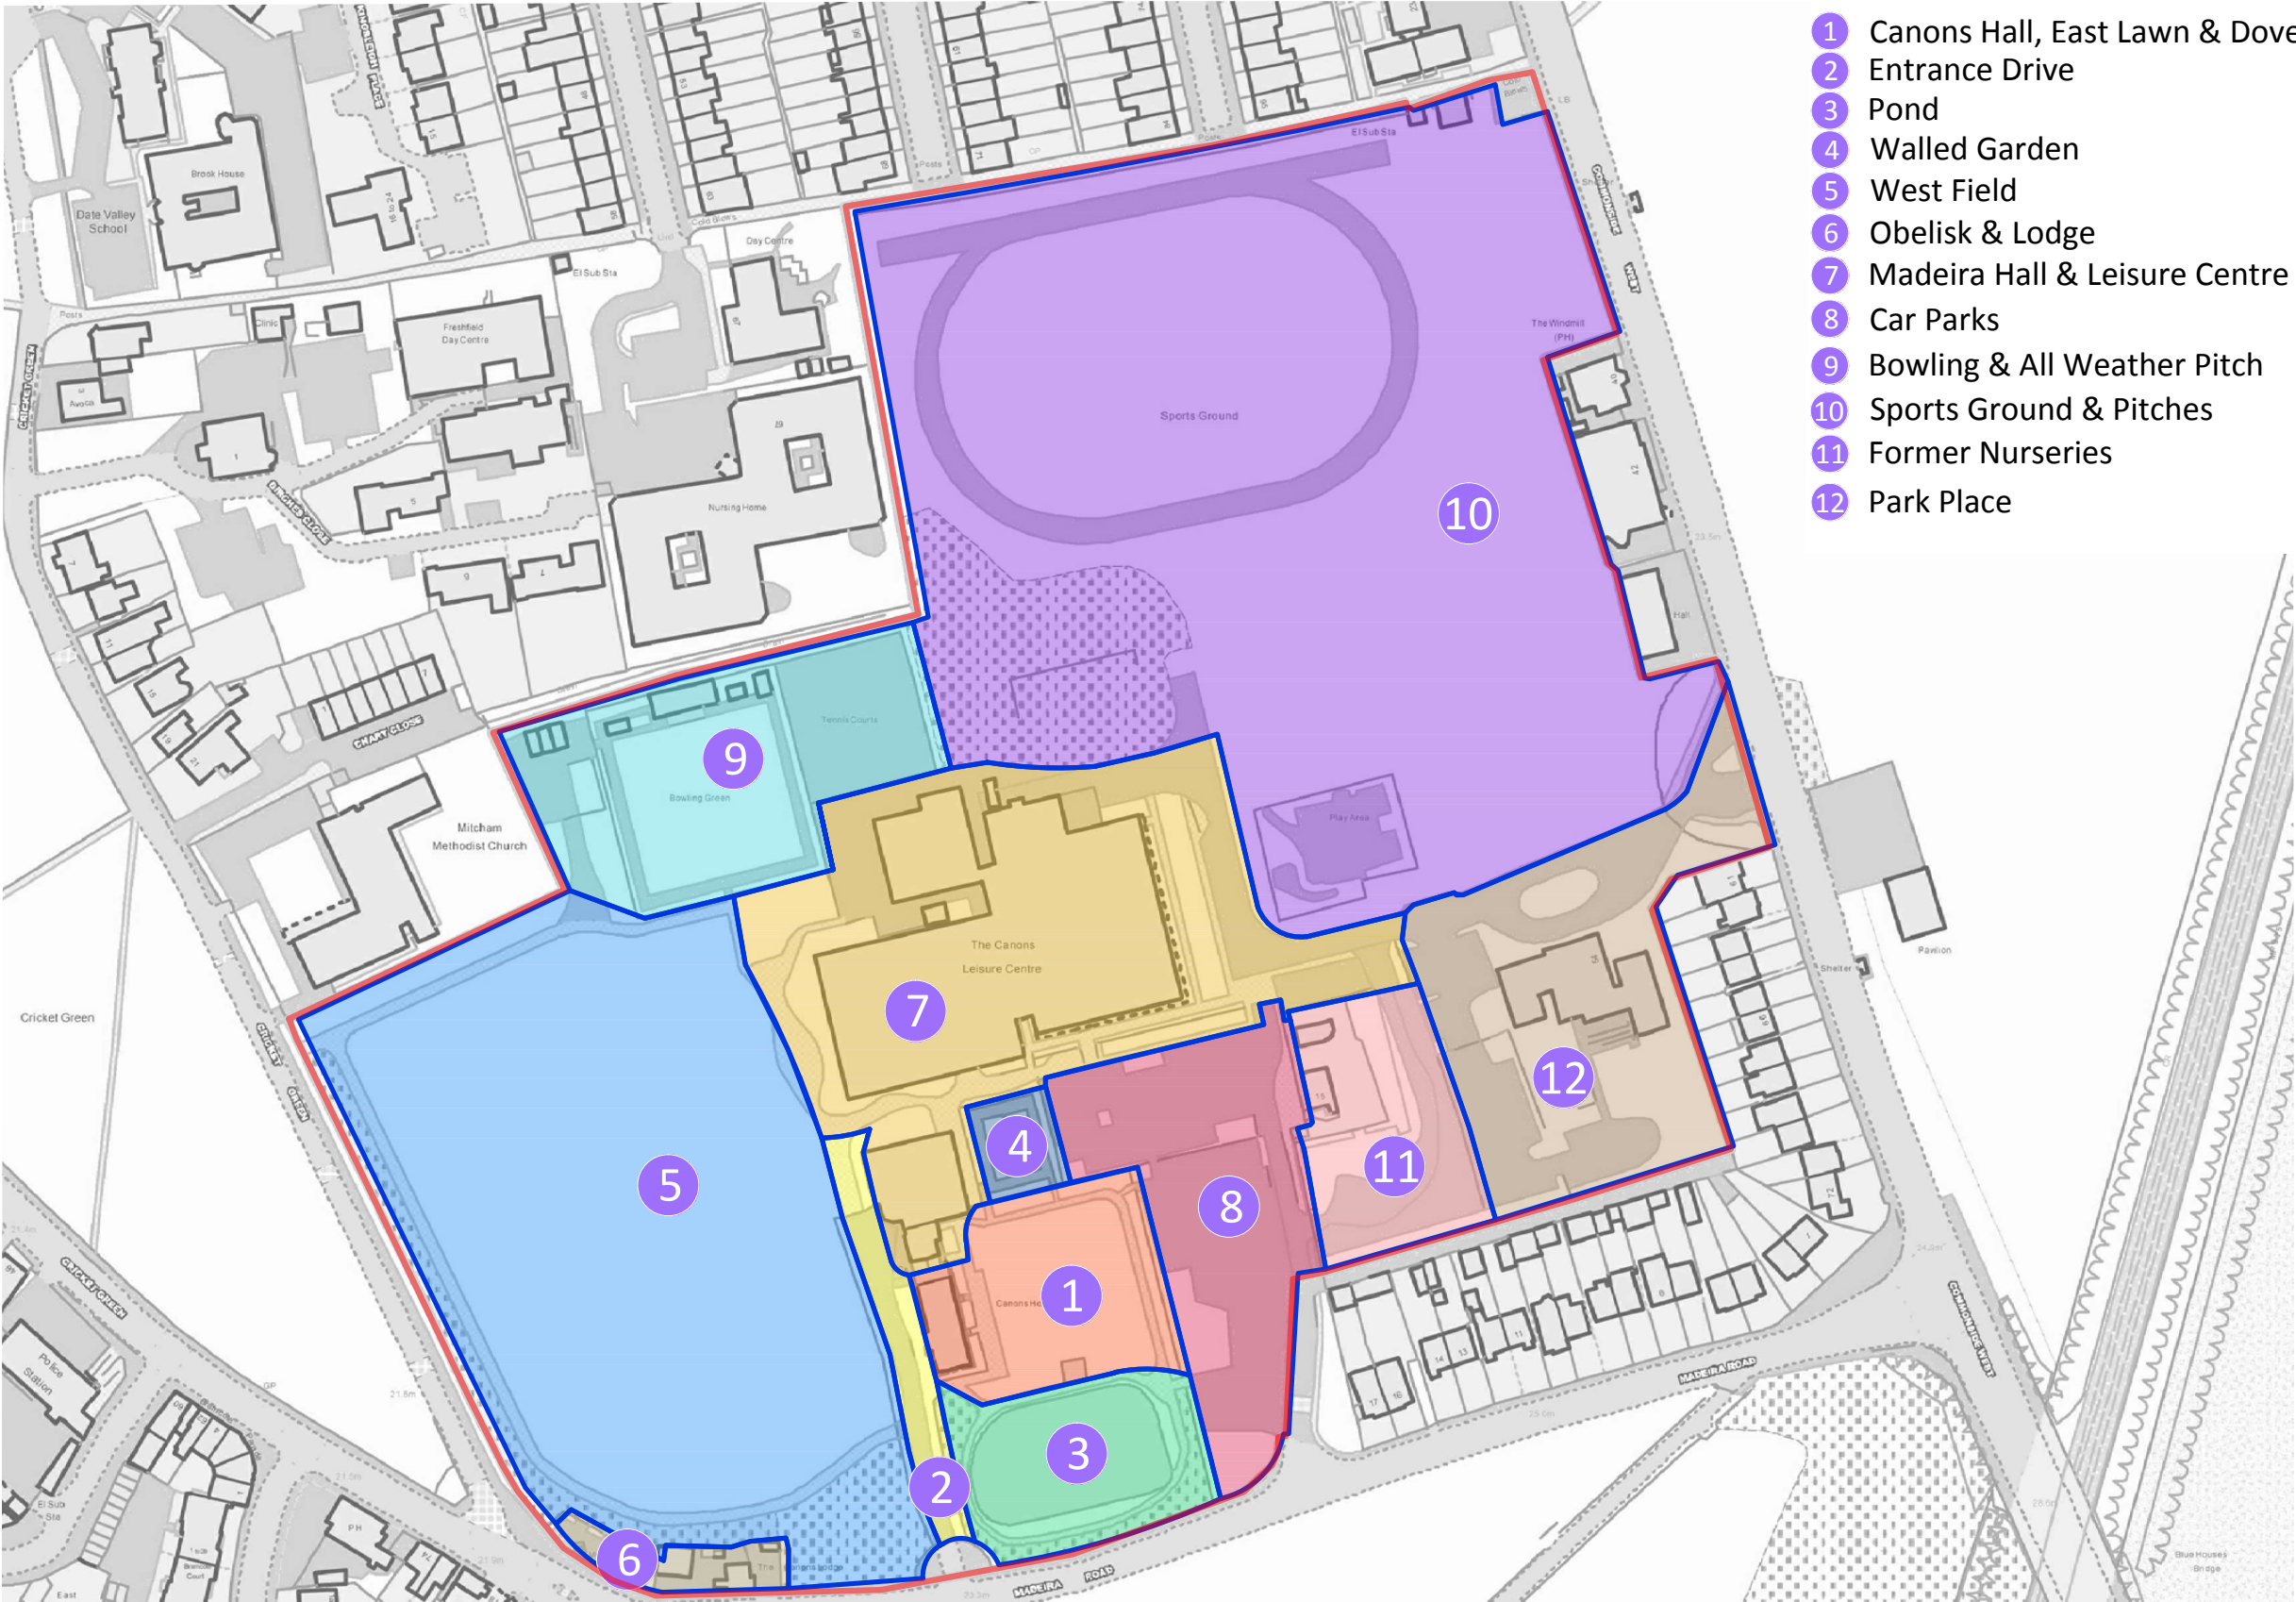

As can be seen from The Mitcham Cricket Green Conservation Area Plan, The Canons shadows both the Cranmer Green (no.3) and Three Kings Palace (no.4) areas.

- 1 Church Road
